Description

The Islamic Society of Central Jersey (ISCJ) is an organization of Muslim Americans that provides religious, educational and social services to its members, as well as to the community at large. ISCJ is a non-political, non-profit, religious organization that encourages its members to be model citizens of the United States and to actively participate in the running of the local, state and national governments through volunteering and voting. ISCJ invites community leaders, elected officials and those seeking public office to address its members and to discuss important issues and their positions on those. The ISCJ never endorses any candidate for any office.

Mission Statement:

We aspire to be the anchor of a model community of practicing Muslims of diverse backgrounds, democratically governed, efficiently served, relating to one another with inclusiveness and tolerance, and interacting with the neighbors and the community at large in an Islamic exemplary fashion. The fundamental objective of the Society will be to seek Glory to Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala. The Quran, Sunnah and the Sharia shall always be the guiding light for the Society.
