Description

At Mind Matters Psychiatry LLC, we offer truly individualized care for your psychiatric needs. We listen to your story, understand your struggles and then, together we develop a treatment plan that is uniquely individual to your needs. We are also happy to include your support system in your care, if you so desire as well as incorporate your religious/ spiritual beliefs, if that is important to you. With your permission, we will work closely with your PCP/ therapist to ensure a holistic approach in achieving complete well being. We offer treatment to adults and teenagers ages 14 and above.
